

Zan Azlee is a media professional based in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. He started his career in 2000 as a print journalist for The Sun (Malaysian national newspaper) and then as a broadcast journalist at ntv7 (Malaysian national television station). He founded Fat Bidin Media in 2003. He is currently Editor for Magazine Programming at ASTRO AWANI (Malaysia's first 24-hour news channel. He also writes a column and provides video and multimedia content for The Malaysian Insider (Malaysian online news organisation).

Zan just recently returned from Afghanistan where he was embedded with the Malaysian Armed Forces (September 2011). He filed regular video reports for ASTRO Awani while he was there and now he is finalizing a multimedia feature for The Malaysian Insider, a feature article and photo essay for Esquire Malaysia, and a feature documentary film and book.

Zan and his company Fat Bidin Media has been involved in many television productions (news and current affairs, documentaries) for many clients such as Al Jazeera International, VPRO TV (Dutch broadcaster), VJ Movement (Dutch news agency). Zan holds a MA in Broadcast Journalism from Staffordshire University, UK, and is also a broadcast journalism and documentary lecturer at several local universities. He is also regularly invited to conduct lectures, talks and workshops.

Services

- New Media/Internet
- Web videos
- Content development (video/audio/text)
- Viral marketing
- Consultation

Writing

- Print journalist
- Copywriting
- Translation (English—Bahasa Malaysia)
- Editor
- Consultation
- Lecturing/Speaking engagements

Production/Broadcast

- Broadcast journalist
- Director
- Producer
- Scriptwriter
- Videographer
- Voice-over artist
- Hosting
- Consultation
- Lecturing/Speaking engagements